New York representatives of the Western railroads believe that the railroad rate situation in the West will be materially strengthened by the formation of a transcontinental passenger association. Such an organization has been agreed upon by the general passenger agents, who have just been meeting at Glenwood Springs, Col., and the movement needs only the approval of the Western presidents' meeting in New York on Sept. 18 to make it an assured fact. The famous Rogers locomotive works, at Paterson, N. The fifth man is reported to have said he thought Taylor had won, but as he was prejudiced against the colored rider declared it was a dead heat. This statement has come under the notice of the management and the man will not act as a judge again. The managers of the meet were in no way to blame for the race not being run off Thursday night as the riders would not abide by the ruling of the judges, but those interested in the track will endeavor to select impartial judges here-

A HANDICAP RACE.

It Caused Much Interest at the Driving Club Track.

There was a good crowd at the Business Men's Driving Club matinee yesterday, and though the carded races were not of as exciting nature, the spectators were given a treat in the way of novelty. A handicap race was arranged and caused considerable amusement. Following this was a special race between Jack Pointer, owned by Dr. Light, and Glad Boy, owned by E. O. Matlock. The race was for one mile, and Jack Pointer won in 2:2414.

Next Friday a handicap race on a larger scale will be one of the features. The owner of each animal on the grounds will the Newby Oval track. It might be said 1; by Thomas, 2. DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 7 .- No agreement has yet been reached on the bar mill and puddling scale by the Amalgamated Association and the iron manufacturers, who are conferring on it in this city. G. W French, of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, said to-day that the manufacturers had offered the men $4.50 a ton and declared: "If they do not accept it means the end of the Amaigamated Association. for we will shut down our mills or get puddlers who will work for prices which we can afford to pay. If we close the mills what are the men going to do? They seem to think that we can pay them any price they ask and then get it back from the public at large. But we can't, and I'm sorry that the men can't get this through their heads." It is thought a scale will be signed or negotiattions broken off at tomorrow's meeting.
